After removal is completed, the owner/operator shall perform a site assessment by measuring for the presence of a release where contamination is most likely to be present at the UST site. - (5) SPECIAL CONTINGENCIES: For future reference refer to section 175.425 and NFPA 70 concerning UST wiring procedures. Request for amendment was received and approved verbally by Dan Starks 09/24/12. See the amendment request letter for reference. It was found by the contractor that there was no existing secondary chase containment piping to remain as was originally believed and stated on the original permit action. The existing primary flexible product piping was evidentially allowed to remain in ground by Dan Starks and used as an electrical conduit chase for low voltage sump sensors for all three existing dispenser sumps. Any old piping encountered in the new ditch shown on the install drawing will be removed to relieve congestion in the trench. The remaining is to be used as chase for the electric. For further details see permit 00940-2012INS (amended 09/24/12), and 00941-2012ABN.
